Measure 15-223 Colestin Rural Fire Protection District

Ballot Title

15-223

Dissolution of Colestin Rural Fire Protection District

Question: Shall the Colestin Rural Fire Protection District be dissolved and its tax rate eliminated?

Summary: Measure would dissolve Colestin Rural Fire Protection District and eliminate Colestin Rural Fire Protection District's permanent tax rate. Measure would take effect on JANUARY 1, 2024. All assets and liabilities of Colestin Rural Fire Protection District would transfer to Jackson County Fire District No. 5 (JCFD5) including funds held. The complete plan of dissolution is available for examination at the office of the county clerk.

Currently, the Colestin District and JCFD5 have a mutual aid agreement where JCFD5 responds to emergencies in the Colestin District. Dissolution of the Colestin District will enable the Colestin district territory to be annexed into JCFD5, be fully part of that district, and taxed by JCFD5 at the PTR of $3.1976/$1,000. JCFD5 is actively working to annex the Colestin District, but annexation cannot occur unless this measure passes.

Explanatory Statement

For over four decades, the all-volunteer Colestin Rural Fire District has served the fire and emergency life safety needs of the community. Now core volunteers are aging out, volunteerism is on the decline and the elected Board of Directors have determined that continued operation of a separate fire department is unsustainable.

After researching options and public discussion, the Colestin Board of Directors determined the most viable option for continued fire services is to annex the Colestin territory into Jackson County Fire District 5. Annexation cannot occur until the Colestin Rural Fire District is dissolved. The Board has referred this measure to the ballot as the initial step. Dissolution of the district is the question at issue in the vote before you.

A "Yes" vote is for dissolution of the Colestin Rural Fire District and lays the groundwork for timely annexation into Jackson County Fire District 5. Dissolution is a prerequisite to annexation. Dissolution will also eliminate the Colestin Rural Fire District tax levy.

A "No" vote is against dissolution of the Colestin Rural Fire District. If the vote for dissolution fails, the Board of Colestin Rural Fire District believes it will be unable to staff and operate the fire department, which will effectively cease operations December 31, 2023. After that date, the Board of Directors believes it is likely the community will be without fire and emergency life safety services for some indeterminate time and that decisions may be left to Jackson County.

Dissolution of the Colestin District will allow the territory to be annexed into Jackson County Fire District 5 through either a future vote or consent of the electorate. If dissolution is approved, Jackson County Fire District 5 has agreed to provide emergency services in the interim as part of the dissolution plan while annexation is pursued.

Argument in Favor

We support a YES vote on the "Dissolution of the Colestin Rural Fire District" measure before you.

Our local volunteers have given years of dedicated service to the community, but it is clear that CRFD is no longer sustainable. With CRFD ending its fire and medical service to the community, we will need to have these services provided by another agency. Dissolution of CRFD is the first, necessary step for a smooth transfer of such services from CRFD to Jackson County Fire District 5.

As a community, we can promote an orderly and timely transition from CRFD to JCFD5 by voting YES to dissolve CRFD. A process to annex into Jackson County Fire District 5 will follow successful dissolution of CRFD.

As volunteers, it has been very rewarding to serve our community. We believe moving to the professional services of Jackson County Fire District 5 will provide continuing excellent service, and is the best way to care for our community going forward.
